Fourth Annual Sale of High-Grade, Beautiful Furs.

FURS and Fur Garments are promised a greater vogue the coming season than they have enjoyed for many seasons past. Last year's great demand has only acted as a stimulant to fashion, and to be correctly attired this winter furs will be essential.

We have never had finer furs than now, and the prices are the lowest for which it is possible to offer equal quality.

1/4 to 1/3 LESS THAN THEY REGULARLY SELL FOR.

The savings are as deserving in one line as in another, and altogether this section has never before been in such splendid preparedness as now.

THE POPULAR LENGTH IN COATS IS 52 INCHES; DISTINCTIVE AND BEAUTIFUL STYLES IN EVERY WORTHY FUR.

VANDERBILT-SEARS PACT MAY SOON BE ANNOUNCED

Special to The Washington Herald.
Newport, Aug. 8.—It is understood here that Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to give a luncheon at Marble House, her home here, on August 19, at which Miss Eleanor Sears is to be the guest of honor. At this function the announcement of the engagement of her son, Harold Sterling Vanderbilt, to Miss Sears, may be announced. It is significant that Mrs. Belmont has as guests her sisters, Mrs. William T. Vanderbilt, of Paris, and Mrs. William Slater, of New York.

Young Mr. Vanderbilt has been spending a good bit of time here this season, and it has been remarked that his visits have always been timed exactly with those of Miss Sears. There will be little surprise here if the report proves correct and the engagement is soon announced.

The announcement of this engagement will be the termination of a long and bitter battle between Harold Vanderbilt and Paul Rainey for the hand of Miss Sears, who appeared to favor first one and then the other.

When Harold Vanderbilt was taken ill in California several years ago, Miss Sears hurried to his side.

When Paul Rainey started for the Arctic to hunt musk oxen and polar bears a little more than a year since, Miss Sears was the last person to leave the ship, and it was understood that she gave him a sealed letter to comfort him on his way. When Mr. Rainey returned Miss Sears was the first to greet him.

Shortly after Mr. Rainey's return Harold Vanderbilt again appeared to be the more favored. Then Mr. Rainey announced that he would go to Africa to hunt lions and elephants. Society wondered what could have sent him away again so quickly.

Two weeks ago word was received that Mr. Rainey would remain in Africa. Now comes the word of Miss Sears' engagement to Harold Vanderbilt.

HAAG SHOWS ARE COMING.

"The Mighty Haag shows," said to be the only circus owned by a Southerner on the road, will be in Washington on August 26, pitching their tents at Fifteenth and H streets northeast.

The circus has a big menagerie, including the only living wild black camel known to man. The rare acquisition was made last December, when a special hunting party in the employ of the Haag shows caught the animal in the cold regions near the Lake of Lobnor, Monsieur d'Paulham, who recently held all France as a prize with his wonderful aerial flights in the Meteor, with the shows to demonstrate his machine.

PENNY "EATERY" TO OPEN.

Gospel Mission Plans Much Larger Quick-Lunch Room.

Meals for a penny, upon the largest scale yet attempted anywhere in the United States, will be supplied after September 1, at the old District building, 214-216 John Marshall place, by the Gospel Mission. The experiment which was conducted at the old cafe, Fourteenth street and Ohio avenue northwest, was so successful and supplied so great a need that H. W. Kline, superintendent of the mission, says the new cafe will be unequalled by any similar institution in the city.

The mission has recently purchased the old building for $22,000, has spent $10,000 in repairs, and will expend $1,000 in fitting up the cafe.

MEETING OPENS TO-DAY.

Washington Clergy to Take Part at Great Falls.

Great Falls camp meeting opens this morning at 4 o'clock, being the special feature of the Biblical Institute, which will continue until next Thursday. Among those who will take part in the exercises are Rev. F. J. Prentiss, Rev. N. H. Light, Rev. Gross Alexander, Rev. Dr. John A. Rice, of Fort Worth, Tex.; Bishop H. C. Morrison, of Leesburg, Fla.; W. W. Millan, T. J. Owen, and Mrs. W. J. H. Robinson.

August 22 is set apart as Sunday school day; August 23, Epworth League day; mission day is August 24, and Women's Christian Temperance Union is set for August 25. For these special days elaborate programmes of appropriate exercises have been prepared.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Society Regrets Departure of the Larz Andersons.

HAVE BEAUTIFUL HOME HERE

Appointment as Minister to Belgium Returns Capt. Anderson to the Diplomatic Service.—Mrs. Brawner Announces the Engagement of Her Daughter Martha.

The appointment of Mr. Larz Anderson, of this city and Brookline, Mass., to be United States Minister to Belgium is of more interest in Washington society than any made in a long time. The Larz Andersons are very particularly identified with society here, where their million-dollar mansion in Massachusetts avenue is one of the handsomest homes south of New York. Their place, "Wald," at Brookline is one of the most beautiful estates in New England.

Mrs. Anderson was formerly Miss Isabel Perkins, of Boston, and at the time of their marriage she was considered to be the wealthiest girl in the United States. Mr. Anderson, more properly known as Capt. Anderson, from his volunteer service in the Spanish war, is a son of the late Mr. Nicholas Larz Anderson, formerly of Cincinnati, uncle of Representative Nicholas Longworth, whose Washington home is at the southeast corner of K and Sixteenth streets. Capt. Anderson was first secretary to the United States Embassy at Rome for a number of years. During that time Mr. George von L. Meyer, now Secretary of the Navy, was Ambassador to Italy. Capt. and Mrs. Anderson became close friends of the now very well known Duke of the Abruzzi, who was entertained elaborately by them during his first visit in Washington, which resulted in the persistent rumors of the engagement of the duke to Miss Perkins.

The Andersons have not spent much time in their Washington home the past two years, as Mrs. Anderson's health has not been good, and they have spent the winters in Southern waters on their houseboat, the Roxana, and the summers in Northern waters. Mrs. Anderson has not been strong enough to take her part in the social affairs, and her elaborate dinner parties, musicales, and dances have been genuinely missed. Washington will sincerely regret the departure of Minister and Mrs. Anderson from their new post of duty will take these charming winter residents away from Washington for an indefinite number of years.

Mrs. Henry A. Brawner announces the engagement of her daughter, Martha Wagonman, to Mr. Ralph Edward Daniels, of St. Louis. The marriage will take place in January, and their future home will be in St. Louis.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Margaret Elizabeth Uile to Mr. William Chichester Linton, both of this city, on Tuesday afternoon, August 15, at 5:30 o'clock, in St. Mark's Episcopal Church. After September 10 they will be at home at 522 Fourth street northeast.

Miss Josie Helen Dobson, daughter of Rev. F. J. Prentiss, of the University of Wisconsin, will be married Wednesday morning, August 9, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Donald C. MacLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will perform the ceremony. Miss Dobson is well known in Washington, but has been for the past two years in Madison, Wis., where she has been the physician to the University of Wisconsin. After a wedding trip to Europe, she will make her future home in Wisconsin.

Miss J. F. Gallagher and her young daughter, Phyllis, of Norfolk, Va., are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Pollak, at the Madrid.

Rear Admiral Willard H. Brownson, U. S. N., is the guest of Capt. Ellis Miller, U. S. N., and Mrs. Miller at the Marine Barracks at the Norfolk Navy Yard. Capt. and Mrs. Miller have just returned from the naval station at Culebra.

Mrs. Alfred Greenhalgh is the guest of Mrs. John Hactor, of Richmond, Va. Later they will go to Old Point Comfort and Ocean View for brief visits.

Mrs. Nathaniel S. Simpkins has arrived in the White Mountains for a brief sojourn, motoring there from her summer home on the North Shore.

Mrs. William Ernst has returned to Washington from Warrenton, Va., where she made a brief visit.

Mrs. Wright, wife of Judge Daniel Thew Wright, has gone to Boston. She will make a series of visits at the various courts near there before returning to Washington.

Senator Gronna and his daughter, Miss Grace Gronna, who has spent the early spring and summer in Washington with her father, have returned to their home in North Dakota, where they joined the rest of the family for the season. Miss Gronna is a most attractive and charming young woman and made many friendships during her stay in Washington. She is one of the most accomplished musicians in Senatorial circles.

Miss Elizabeth Reeside, with her brother, Mr. Harman Reeside, has gone to Atlantic City, where they will be the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Alfred Lippincott, of Philadelphia, at the Reeside. They will be joined there on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Reeside, who will remain several weeks.

Prince Ludovic Pignatelli d'Aragona is in New York, from where he will go to Newport, and also visit the various North Shore resorts. He will later come to Washington, where he will join the Spanish legation here as attaché.

Miss Beulah Kibbey Lacy has returned from King George County, Va., where she has been the guest of Misses Mary Murray and Emma Grigsby, at their summer home. She will leave Washington on Thursday for Norfolk, Ocean View, and Hampton, where she will spend the remainder of the summer.

Miss Dorcas Merrill, daughter of Rear Admiral Merrill, U. S. N., is visiting Mrs. Louise R. Hayes at her cottage at Litchfield, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Thomas and son have gone to Orchard Beach, Me., where they will spend a fortnight. They will also make brief visits to other seasonal resorts for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Legare sailed for England yesterday on the Lusitania.

Miss Gladys McMillan, daughter of Mrs. Spencer Penrose, of Colorado Springs, will accompany her grandmother, Mrs. James McMillan, to Europe. They will sail for Scotland August 22. Later they will visit Lady Harrington in London and will be abroad about two months.

COLLEGE MEN FORM

SOCIALIST BRANCH

Unit to Promote Study of Principles.

Twenty-five socialists have banded together in Washington and formed a local chapter of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society.

The first meeting of the chapter was held last night, and on the membership list appear the names of graduates of Harvard, Columbia, Dartmouth, Wesleyan, and George Washington universities, besides graduates of a number of Russian colleges.

Dr. J. F. Eskin, of 619 O street northwest, was elected financial secretary and treasurer at the meeting. Charles F. Nesbitt, of the Y. M. C. A., was elected delegate to the national executive committee.

The society's object is "to promote an intelligent interest in socialism among college men and women."

Harry W. Laibler, a Wesleyan man, brought about the organization of the local chapter. Mr. Laibler was one of the organizers of the national society, of which J. G. Phelps Stokes, of New York City, is president. No regular place of meeting has yet been decided upon. Each meeting elects its presiding officer.

PIONEER PLUMBER CALLED BY DEATH

Daniel Hannan Was Resident of Capital Sixty Years.

Daniel Hannan, a resident of Washington for sixty years, died at his home, 603 Sixth street northwest, last night at 8 o'clock after a long illness following an attack of paralysis.

He was a native of Ireland, and came to Washington in 1850 at the age of eighteen. He learned the plumbing business with J. W. Thompson, and for years conducted a plumbing establishment of his own.

In 1886 Mr. Hannan married Katherine Morris, sister of the late Mr. Justice M. F. Morris. He is survived by his wife and six children—Rev. Eugene A. Hannan, of St. Martin's Church; J. Edward, Frank, Warren Whyte, of 835 M street northwest, and Misses Anna and Loretta Hannan, all of this city.

Mr. Hannan was one of the oldest members of St. Patrick's Church, with which he was connected for fifty years. He was an active member of the Knights of Columbus, St. Vincent de Paul Society, Carroll Institute, and the Association of the Oldest Inhabitants of the District. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Neighborhood House Official Will Marry Chester A. Slater.

Friends of Miss Doris K. Cisel, of Wheaton, Md., who is an official of the Neighborhood House of this city, were surprised yesterday to learn that she is to be married to-day in Baltimore to Chester Arthur Slater, of 215 Florida avenue northwest, for several years chief inspector of the Southern Railway in the Capital.

Miss Cisel is twenty-two years of age and Mr. Slater gives his age as twenty-nine. The prospective groom is in the lumber business.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS IN RALLY.

Enthusiasm Marks Daily Service at Washington Grove.

Epworth League services at Washington Grove are proceeding with enthusiasm, under the direction of H. S. Omohundro, conference president of the league. Regular attendants are daily re-enforced by hundreds who go to the grounds to spend the day.

Six services are held daily, beginning at 9:15 in the morning. Speakers at the meetings include Rev. Arthur Thompson, of Waugh Church; Deacon Wales Duval, of Wesley; Dr. Harry S. France, of Trinity Church, Washington; Rev. Samuel W. Griffin, of Anacostia; Dr. N. H. Holmes, of the Pittsburgh conference; H. McKenney, of Kensington; Rev. C. W. Gover, of Goshen, and Deaconess Worthington, of Rosedale Mission.

Find Counterfeit $10 Bill.

Chief Wilkie and his associates in the Secret Service have a specimen of a new $10 counterfeit which they class as of poor workmanship and quite easy of detection. It is drawn against the First National Bank of Harrisburg, Pa., and its most noticeable defect is a brownish tinge to the ink on the back in place of the usual green.

TWO SUE FOR DIVORCE.

Applications for Absolute Decrees Are Filed in Court.

Alleging misconduct and naming a co-respondent, Helen R. G. Hartman yesterday filed suit for absolute divorce from Julius Henry Hartman. They were married November 12, 1910, in this city.

Milford J. Stern yesterday filed suit for absolute divorce from Catherine Stern, naming a co-respondent. They were married at Rockville, Md., August 15, 1910, and have no children.

LANTERNED CANOES PLY RIVER IN GREAT PARADE

Crowds on Aqueduct Bridge View Brilliant Water Pageant from Government Wharf to Washington Canoe Club.

Bedecked with myriad Japanese lanterns, dancing grotesquely to the graceful motion of the fairy-like craft, thirty canoes from the Washington Canoe Club paraded over the water of the upper Potomac last night, while hundreds of spectators on the Aqueduct Bridge viewed the beautiful sight below them.

The river was ablaze with beauty, the weirdly illuminated canoes cutting figure eights, making great circles, and going through a maze of intricate and beautiful maneuvers on the placid water. The parade started from the government wharf, and because of difficulties in arranging the craft in the desired order, the pageant did not start until after 9 o'clock.
